Chairman's Profile

Mr D.S Yadav - Chief Engineer (Motor + Steam), MBA, Chartered Engineer, AMIE, Fi.MAR.E.

Mr D. S. Yadav CMD and Founder of the Yak Group started his career with the Indian Naval Service (Defence Force) as an Engineering Officer and served in various Naval vessels and shore establishments.

Mr. Yadav joined the Merchant Navy in 1990, after taking an early retirement from his position as a Commander from the Navy and worked on various Indian and Foreign merchant ships for close to 10 years After gaining valuable experience and exposure in the Navy for 26 years and the Merchant Navy for 10 years Mr Yadav moved on to pursue his lifetime passion of Maritime Training for seafarer's.

Having started with one institute for STCW 95 courses in 1999 the Institute subsequently expanded into a full fledged training center for the shipping industry with Pre Sea Courses. Today Yak Group has one of the largest centers for maritime education and is a formidable name in the industry. Training for Graduate Marine Engineer (GME), Diploma in Marine Engineering (DME), BSc Degree in Nautical Science (from Mumbai University) interalia are some of the prospective schemes of the group. Yak Groups pre-eminence in maritime education and training is reflective of its excellent programs, experienced faculty and outstanding facilities

Vision

Yak Group was formed with a vision to provide quality education and training to all stratas of society keeping in mind the global changing scene in Maritime requirements and need of society. The vision is also to encourage masses across the country for education so as to be able to contribute constructively to society and nation. Special emphasis is laid to bring forward the backward and poor classes.

Mission

Delivering high quality maritime education by recognizing the demand & global changes in the shipping industry. Continuously improve the training facilities. Embedding strict discipline, safety culture and love for cleaner environment among the young generation of seafarers.

Welcome Aboard

Merchant Navy is a challenging career. It provides you with an opportunity of sailing around the world, visit interesting places and experience different cultures. It is a well paid profession and makes a person capable of working in demanding environmental and global conditions.

Merchant Navy is a commercial service which deals with transportation of over 90 % of Cargo and Passengers by sea. Its fleet therefore comprises of Passengers liners, Cargo Vessels, Tankers, Gas Carriers, Chemical Ships, Container Vessels as well as other special types of ships. A career in this field is full of adventure and professional challenges and has very good growth opportunities.

Merchant Navy is highly lucrative career for those who are built for a highly challenging job.

The Merchant Navy primarily has two distinct streams, one for Nautical Officers and the other for Engineering Officers in addition to crew members and saloon staff. Merchant Navy officers are employed by shipping companies on a contractual basis of six to nine months duration. In the earlier years, a career in Merchant Navy was purely for men, and women did not have opportunities to pursue a career in Merchant Navy. However in the recent times women are taking up these career opportunities.

The training at Yak Education Trust Institute is distinctly professional and quality is commensurate to industry standards. The results speak for itself as the G . P. Ratings have been the best and always close to 100%. The Training Campus at Khopoli on the outskirts of Mumbai is one of the best in the industry spread over 25 acres. On completion of the training the candidates are assured with placement opportunities globally.

I would like to personally welcome all students and wish them a bright and fulfilling future

With Best Wishes,
D. S. Yadav, Chairman
